STARHAVEN by Liz Donahue Launches at JCK Las Vegas

Dallas, TX – Liz Donahue, designer and CEO of Starhaven LLC, announced on Monday that her designer collection will be showing at JCK Las Vegas, June 1st-5th in the Stylemakers Pavilion, Booth #42041.

Liz Donahue launched the Starhaven LLC Jewelry Company in 2005, creating the foundation for the Starhaven designer brand. The Sterling Silver & Gold designer collection is patented from a motif of Liz's original drawings and paintings that date back 15 years. Her aspiration is based on a center spine accent, representing strength, cradled by symmetrical ornate swirls, symbolizing energy and balance in each piece. Liz has incorporated beautifully cut gemstones to add even more richness to the pieces. It is evident that Liz's education in Fine Art & Graphic Design, played a prominent role in the creative perfection of craftsmanship and artistry of the Starhaven Collection. Her uniquely bold cuffs and medallion pendants show the true vintage technique that this artist brings to the Jewelry Industry.

"I am honored that my collection will be showing at JCK Las Vegas. It is the most recognized event in the jewelry industry and therefore I look forward to having a very successful experience as a first time designer at the show." – Liz Donahue
